APRIL 2015 NEWSLETTER!

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

AOH President's Message

Beannachtaí na Féile Pádraig to all.

Our Saint Patrick's Day dinner and entertainment was awesome. We all had a tremendous comed beef and cabbage dinner and then relaxed to watch some Irish step dancing. On behalf of the Division membership I'd like to thank Dick Hart, Dave Smolinsky, Buddy MacDonald and Peter Daly for all the hard work they put in the kitchen. I'd also like to thank those that helped in any way to make the dinner as success; Bob Casey, Harry Danis, Dan and Meg McAdam, Desi and Mary McElroy, Billy Gildea and Leo Falter. Paul and Jimmy did a great job, as usual, playing all our favorite Irish tunes but what made the night extra special was the performance of the Irish step dancers of the O'Shea – Chaplin Academy of Irish Dance. If you didn't make it to the dinner and entertainment, for whatever reason, you really missed out on a good time.

It is very important, please, to pay particular attention to the Calendar of Events in the newsletter and what Division functions are currently scheduled. If you don't read the newsletter then you won't know what is going on at the Club and when.

This is the last newsletter that will be including the 2015 scholarship application information. The deadline is fast approaching for applications to be submitted, don't let your graduating children and/or grandchildren be left out.

I was hoping to push this newsletter out sooner but work and personal commitments became a priority. That said I trust that everyone had a solemn and spiritual Lenten season and a Happy Easter.

Please note that a new class will be coming in on Wednesday April 15 in memory of Don McAdam.

Yours in Friendship, Unity and Christian Charity,

Joseph P. McCusker Jr.
